MCB Hawaii Marine Wins Trip to Super Bowl in the MCCS Football Bash Promotion

HQMC (MR), QUANTICO, VA – SSgt David Kohut was the lucky winner of the 2008 Marine Corps Community Services (MCCS) Football Bash Grand Prize – a five day/four night, all expense paid trip for two to Tampa, FL to attend Super Bowl XLIII, valued at over $7,500.

This fall, MCCS clubs and restaurants across the Corps sponsored the MCCS Football Bash in an effort to get Marines into MCCS facilities for a little fun, camaraderie, and football. In all, MCCS club and restaurant patrons submitted over 60,000 raffle entries. Official event sponsors included AT&T, Anheuser-Busch, Coca Cola, EA Sports, GNC, the NFL Players Association, Outback Restaurants, Tyson Foods, and Weber-Stephen Products Company.

As the winner of an installation Football Bash raffle, SSgt Kohut was eligible for a 1 in 21 chance at the Grand Prize. His name was drawn during a raffle on Dec. 12, 2008, at HQMC, Personnel and Family Readiness Division, aboard MCB Quantico, VA. SgtMaj Daniel K. Burs, the Manpower and Reserve Affairs Sergeant Major, drew the winning ticket.

The Grand Prize winner receives tickets for two to Super Bowl XLIII, airfare, four nights lodging, $500 spending money, 2 passes to Busch Gardens, and gift certificates to Outback, Bonefish Grill, and Carrabba's Italian Grill. GySgt Christopher Phelps, MCAS Cherry Point, won the Second Place Prize of $1,000 and a Sony PSP Madden 09 Edition. Cpl Charles Patterson, MCAS Iwakuni, won the Third Place Prize of $500 and an iPod.

Be sure to ask your local MCCS club manager about current contests and promotions going on at your installation. MCCS patrons just like you do win! Don't miss out, participate today!
