FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – 03/12/2009

MCAS Iwakuni, Japan – Marine Corps Community Services is excited to announce another great service available at the Softbank Crossroads location. Customers can now make cash or credit card payments for their cell phones on station. Until now customers have had to go out in town to pay their bill. Customers now have the convenience of paying right here on station.

For questions on Softbank services, feel free to call 253-5851.

Marine Corps Community Services was able to bring yet another great service to MCAS Iwakuni because of helpful suggestions from patrons. With their continued support, MCCS is working to bring programs and services to better suit the needs of the community.
